

Directions to: Chester - VDOT Richmond District Training Center

Address: 2201 West Hundred Road
Chester, VA 23831

(The old Richmond-Petersburg Toll Road Administration Building) on Interstate 95 (I-95) at the intersection with State Route 10 - there is no web site with the directions to this location. If you use the address provided, MapQuest will take you about a mile away from where you need to be so I will give you the following directions to get there.

1. Traveling South on Interstate 95 (I-95). Take Exit 61-A which is Route 10 towards Hopewell. In the middle of the exit ramp, there is an entrance to the old Richmond-Petersburg Toll Road Administration Building and parking lot, get off of the ramp here. The building is now VDOT's Richmond District Training Center. Park in the parking lot and enter the building through the double doors and sign in at the information desk to the right after entering the building. Check the Television Monitor after entering the building to see which classroom is the one for the training that is to be attended after signing and go to the classroom.
2. Traveling North on Interstate 95 (I-95). Take Exit 61-B which is Route 10 towards Chester, stay in the entrance/exit lane to get back onto I-95 traveling South. Remain in the entrance/exit lane so that you are getting off to go to Hopewell on Route 10. In the middle of the exit ramp, there is an entrance to the old Richmond-Petersburg Toll Road Administration Building and parking lot, get off of the ramp here. The building is now VDOT's Richmond District Training Center. Park in the parking lot and enter the building through the double doors and sign in at the information desk to the right after entering the building. Check the Television Monitor after entering the building to see which classroom is the one for the training that is to be attended after signing and go to the classroom.
3. Traveling West on Route 10 towards Chester. Get into the entrance/exit lane to get onto I-95 traveling South. Remain in the entrance/exit lane so that you are getting off to go to Hopewell on Route 10. In the middle of the exit ramp, there is an entrance to the old Richmond-Petersburg Toll Road Administration Building and parking lot, get off of the ramp here. The building is now VDOT's Richmond District Training Center. Park in the parking lot and enter the building through the double doors and sign in at the information desk to the right after entering the building. Check the Television Monitor after entering the building to see which classroom is the one for the training that is to be attended after signing and go to the classroom.
4. Traveling East on Route 10. Take the exit ramp to Interstate 95 (I-95) South to Petersburg. Just after entering the ramp, you will see the old Richmond-Petersburg Toll Road Administration Building on your left. There will be an entrance to your left into the parking lot, turn left into the parking lot and find a place to park. After parking in the parking lot, enter the building through the double doors and sign in at the information desk to the right after entering the building. Check the Television Monitor after entering the building to see which classroom is the one for the training that is to be attended after signing and go to the classroom.